Are you a member in good standing of a church? Tell us more about your church background and your testimony of God's grace in your life.

Do you have experience directing or leading worship for a congregation? If not, why do you believe you can fulfill the responsibilities of this position? If so, please tell us about your experience.

What is the Gospel?

Tell us about your theology of worship. In other words, why is music important in the life of God's people?

Tell us about your philosophy of worship. How do you view things such as musical style (traditional and/or contemporary), various instruments, choirs/music teams, etc.? What principles inform your approach to musical style?

What principles should guide selecting songs for Lord's Day worship?

What excites you about being a director of music? Tell us a positive story about leading or directing worship. Tell us something you have learned from leading or directing worship.

What reservations do you have about this position (you must say at least one thing)?

What do you perceive to be some challenges of recruiting and developing a music team?

Is there a question we have not asked that would help differentiate you from other candidates applying for this position (and please answer it)?

Are you able to lead vocally? What instruments do you play?
